District Update:

Kathy Harcourt, the Finance Administrator for Amberley Village, reported the Southwest JEDZ third quarter collections brought in $196 thousand which is down somewhat from last year. She noted the calendar year is down slightly as well stating that could be due to an increase in people working from home, although the Village has not gotten a lot of requests for refunds, or it could be just a down year.

Mr. Weidman asked if we have the ability to collect partial taxes if, for example, people work 50% of the time in the office and 50% at home.

Ms. Harcourt answered yes, but stated she thinks the issue is more due to people who were permitted to remain working from home in 2022. She said it is a positive thing that there have not been a lot of requests for refunds. Ms. Harcourt stated people have up to three years to request a refund.

2023 Budget:

Mr. Weidman reviewed the 2023 budget and entertained a motion to accept it. Mr. Muething made a motion, seconded by Mr. James, to approve the budget as presented.

Mr. Kellums called roll. Vote: Weidman: Aye; Schwegmann: Aye; James: Aye; Rosen: Aye; Muething: Aye
